THE "CIGAR-SHIP" LAUNCHED. Mr. Winans, eigar-ship has just been aunched in England. It is announced that she is intended for a private yacht, to be attached to the Imperial Yacht Club of St. Petersburg. She is christened the "Rose Williams," In a few weeks she will be ready for sea, and some important and interesting experiments will be made, to test her speed and sea going capabilities. Some peculiarities of her construction are thus described in the London Times: " Beneath the vessel, in place of a keel, is a broad band of the best Lowmoor iron, an inch thick, by three feet wide. This is meant to protect her in case of taking the ground, as from her peeculiar form it would be easy to beach her on any emergency. Inside this is an iron floor covered with wood, which runs from end to end of the vessel, and forms, in fact, her passenger deck. This floor amidships is ony about six feet from the lower cylinder, so that overhead there is a tolerably roomy cabin, much resembling in shape a small railway tunnel. The upper and only outer deck is one hundred and thirty feet long by ten and a half feet broad, and is formed by building for that length what we may call a square, A cross × mark on the paper indicates the ex- flat-topped wooden cover on the upper side of the cylinder. For all the world she seemed like the back of a whale that had been decked and tunneled, rather than any ship meant to navigate the ocean."- Washington

> COBDEN AND PALMERSTON.—Rev. Dr. Waddington, of London, in a letter to the Congregationalist, relates the following anecdote of Cobden, showing the plainness with which he talked when Palmerston asked him

On meeting Lord Palmerston, Mr. Cobden For advertisements inserted irregularly, 25 per | was told that a place was reserved for him in the Ministry, and the veteran statesman No paper in the South has advertising facilities expressed his carnest desire that the great free-trader would accept the position offered to him, and that all would act harmoniously. Mr. Cobden replied in his frank manner that it was impossible for him to unite with the Government under the leadership of Palmerston. "I may be wrong, my lord," he said, "but before I went to America, I said you were the greatest impostor in Europe, and that you lost millions of money, and were dear at a fraction of the price. I may have JOB PRINTING been mistaken in my estimate, but it will not do to make the discovery of such an error at the moment of accepting office."

"Oh! that is nothing," replied the good tempered Palmerston; "you have not hit me harder than Gibson, and he has joined

"That may be," said Cobden; "but I can-not think of taking the appointment." After a little further conversation, the honest free-trader retired, expressing his admiration of the good natured Premier, and promising to join an evening party at Cambridge House, but still inflexible in his purpose not to take

CONNECTICUT.—There seems to be no possible doubt that Gen. Hawley, the Union candidate for Governor of Connecticut, has been chosen by a majority ranging some-BLANKS, where near 700. The vote of the State shows some curious changes; for instance, in New Haven there is a Democratic majority of nearly a thousand morethan usual. But the feverish excitements of town life did not extend to the rural districts, and so we are very happy to record the honorable and deserved success of a generous and brave soldier, the representative of the loyal men of the State, instead of the semi-loyal exponent of the party that did its utmost to thwart and discourage the Government in its days of adversity. The good people of the Land of Steady Habits are not hasty in changes of opinion-they move slowly but surely, and in this instance they have rightly preferred the path of approved and manifest loyalty to the tortuous ways of the tide-waiters of a party that is loyal or disloyal, friend or foe, as the shifting chances of the hour may dic-

> It is asserted in Northern papers that President Johnson has expressed his disapprobation of Senator Stewart's reconstruction scheme. We are glad to notice that no Southern paper has yet endorsed it, and we hope no responsible or respectable Southern man will do so. Henry S. Foote, formerly of Mississippi, California and Tennessec-a skedaddler from the late Confederacy, and now loitering about Washington city-has endorsed Stewart's plan, but that was because Stewart is his son-in-law, and because he knows that he (Foote) has forfeited and betrayed the confidence of Southern people. The best course for all the true friends of the country, of peace and of justice, is to stand firmly by the President's reconstruction policy and give him all the aid they can. Let us be particular so to act as not to embarrass him. President Johnson has just vetoed another iniquitous measure of the radicals, the measure known as the Civil Rights Bill, and he shows a determination to guard the Constitution and adhere to the policy marked out by himself for reconstruction. It would be unfair and unmanly for southern men to desert him now and favor such schemes as Stewart's. By all means let us give our influence (as far as we are permitted) to the President's policy, and let us wait with patience the result.—Charlotte Democrat.

The state of feeling in Alabama is thus frankly summed up by the Selma SCALE OF DEPRECIATION!

The following Act, in relation to the scaling of Confederate Currency, from the time of its first issue to the end of the war, passed at the recent session of the General Assembly:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A SCALE OF DEPRECIATION OF CONFEDERATE CURRENCY. WHEREAS, By an ordinance of the Convention, entitled "An ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, and for other purposes," ratified on the 18th day of October, A. D., 1865, it is made the duty of the General Assembly to provide a scale of depreciation of the Contederate Currency from the time of its first issue to the end of the war; and it is further therein declared that "all executory contracts, solvable in money, whether under seal or not, made after the depre-clation of said currency before the 1st of May, 1865, and unfilled (except official bonds and penal bonds payable to the State) shall be deemed to have been made with the understanding that they were solvable in money of the said currency," subject, nevertheless, to evidence of different intent of the parties to the contract; therefore, Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the following scale of reciation be and the same is hereby adopted established as the measure of value of one gold dollar in Confederate currency, for each month, and the fractional parts of the month of December, 1864, from the 1st day of November,

1861, to the 1st day of May, 1865, to-wit: Scale of depreciation of Confederate currency, the gold dollar being the unit and measure of value, from November 1st, 1861, to May 1st, 1865: MONTHS. 1861, 1862, 1863, January, ... $1 20 83 03 February, ... 1 30 3 00 March, ... 1 50 4 00 April, ... 1 50 5 00 May, ... 1 50 5 50 $21 00 21 00 19 00 * 1 50 6 50 18 00 ... 1 50 9 00 21 00 28 00 September, 2 00 11 00 November, $1 10 2 50 15 00 30 09 December, 1 15 2 50 20 00 December 1st to 10th inclusive, 10th to 20th, 1st to 31st,

-49 CO And, whereas, Many grave and difficult disputes may arise between executors, administrators, guardians and trustees, and their legatees, distributees, wards and certagsque trust, in the settle-ment of their accounts and trust, arising from the depreciation of Confederate currency, State treasury notes and bank notes, incident to and growing out of the late war; and that law suits and expensive litigation may be obviated.

Be it further enacted, That in all such cases, the parties are hereby empowered to form a full and perfect statement of the case on both sides, which case shall be committed to the determination of one of the Judges of the Superior Courts, chosen by the parties, who is hereby authorized to con-sider and determine the same, according to equity and good conscience: Provided, however, That no part of this section shall be construed to estop or hinder any person from proceeding in the fisual course of law, if he shall deem the same necessary. Revenue Stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things chamerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided. Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments. It is the daty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglect to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, is cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instra-ment to appropriately stamp it, renders him in ble to a penalty of two hundred dollars, Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, put itention, petition, &c., in which case these, as th original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of seira facias are subject to stamp duty s original processes. The purat of an affidavit, taken before a Justic of the Peace, Notary Public, or other office, duly authorized to take ailidavits, is held to be a certilicate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of logal proceed-Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promisory The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original in-strument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the morrgage, at time of its assignment there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents. When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instru-ment is liable under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyances of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate on interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on any warrant of attor ney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such a case a note or inconorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.
